

Clay Davis

📍 1808 Chicago Avenue; Evanston, IL 60201

✉ cdavis@u.northwestern.edu 🌐 claydav.is

Education

- expected June 2026* Ph.D. in Sociology, Northwestern University; Evanston, IL
- Dissertation title: “P-value politics: How meta-analysis is used to resolve conflict in hospitals, global health NGOs, and US courts”
 - Committee: Steven Epstein (chair), Wendy Espeland, Carol Heimer
- 2022 M.A. in Sociology, Northwestern University; Evanston, IL
- 2018 B.S. in Biology and Society, Cornell University; Ithaca, New York
- Honors thesis committee: Michael Lynch (chair), Christopher Roebuck, Suman Seth
 - cum laude with distinction in research

Peer-reviewed Publications

- 2025 Davis, Clay. “The moral force of guidelines: How surgeons use evidence-based medicine to curb their interventionism.” Sociology of Health & Illness. 47, 8.
- 2023 Davis, Clay. “The routinization of lay expertise: A diachronic account of the invention and stabilization of an open-source artificial pancreas.” Social Studies of Science. 54, 4: 626–652.
- Winner of the ASA Section on Knowledge and Technology Hacker-Mullins Graduate Student Paper Award
 - Winner of the Robert F. Winch Award for Outstanding Graduate Student Published Paper
- 2022 Heimer, Carol, and Clay Davis. “Good law to fight bad bugs: Legal responses to epidemics.” Annual Review of Law and Social Science. 18: 1–26.
- 2020 Davis, Clay. “Homo adhaerens: Risk and adherence in biomedical HIV prevention research.” Social Studies of Science. 50, 6: 860–880.

Book Chapters

- Forthcoming* Davis, Clay. “The knowledge politics of evidence-based global health: knowledge brokers, meta-analysis, and ‘mass deworming’ beyond the World Health Organization.” In Handbook on Knowledge Politics, edited by Daniel Barben, Anja Bauer, and Erik Aarden. Edward Elgar.

Manuscripts in Progress

- Avail. upon request* Davis, Clay and Christine Percheski.* “Unequal access to HIV PrEP in rural U.S. counties: Introducing and validating a new version of PrEP-to-need ratio (PnR) that better captures regions with sparse data.” Target journal: SSM - Population Health.

Essays

- 2020 Davis, Clay. “Beyond investment in research: What COVID-19 policymakers can learn from the HIV/AIDS epidemic.” NULR Of Note.

* Equal co-authors.

Invited Talks

- | | | |
|------|---|--------------------------|
| 2025 | “Experts in exile: How populist mistrust empowers ‘knowledge brokers’ at the margins of health governance” Science Knowledge and Technology Workshop, Columbia University Department of Sociology | New York, New York |
| 2024 | “The routinization of lay expertise: A diachronic account of the invention and stabilization of an open-source artificial pancreas” Experiential knowledge in the making: Lessons and perspectives from the DIY-AIDS movement Department of Philosophy, Université de Montréal | Montréal, Québec, Canada |
| 2024 | “The life cycles of health social movements: How a group of patients with type 1 diabetes routinized their lay expertise” Colloquium, Northwestern University Department of Sociology | Evanston, Illinois |

Conference Presentations

- | | | |
|------|---|--------------------------|
| 2025 | Discussant for “Lay Expertise: Empirical Studies of Lay Social Knowledge” workshop at Copenhagen Business School | Copenhagen, Denmark |
| 2025 | “Too close for credibility: how the epistemology of meta-analysis challenges US federal courts” Society for Social Studies of Science Annual Meeting | Seattle, Washington |
| 2025 | “Knowledge brokers in the gaps of deglobalization: The P-value politics of global health beyond the World Health Organization” Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association | Chicago, Illinois |
| 2025 | “Platinum standard or partisan ploy? A mixed-methods study of how actors in the US federal district courts construct, codify, and contest the epistemic authority of meta-analysis” Law and Society Association Annual Meeting | Chicago, Illinois |
| 2024 | “Evidence-based medicine as a moral and organizational tool for surgeons” Annual Meeting of the American Sociological Association | Montréal, Québec, Canada |
| 2023 | “Meta-analysis as a tool for the global circulation of uncertainty and expertise” Society for Social Studies of Science Annual Meeting | Honolulu, Hawaii |
| 2023 | “Unequal access to PrEP in rural U.S. counties: Focus on health infrastructure and population characteristics” Interdisciplinary Association for Population Health Science Conference | Baltimore, Maryland |
| 2022 | “Making expertise legitimate: ‘Biohackers’ as a morally ambiguous case for analyzing battles over expert authority” Society for Social Studies of Science Annual Meeting | Cholula, Puebla; Mexico |
| 2020 | “Lay expertise in ‘knowledge commons’: How the open-source artificial pancreas community innovates ‘outside of’ IP law and regulation” Law and Society Association Annual Meeting | Chicago, Illinois |

2020	“Patient-led research: Is the open-source artificial pancreas project a new paradigm?” Comparative and Historical Social Science Workshop	Evanston, Illinois
2020	“Solving the problem of regulatory stagnation: the open-source artificial pancreas as a model for patient-led innovation” Problem Solving Sociology Workshop	Evanston, Illinois
2019	“Participant subjectivity, adherence, and risk in biomedical HIV prevention research” Society for Social Studies of Science Annual Meeting	New Orleans, Louisiana

Grants & Fellowships

2025	Dissertation Fellowship Buffett Institute for Global Affairs, Northwestern University
2023	Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grant National Science Foundation	$25,000
2023	Anonymous Midwest University Bioethics Institute (with Wayne Rivera)	$10,000
2020	Graduate Fellowship in Legal Studies Center for Legal Studies, Northwestern University
2020	MacArthur Summer Research Grant Department of Sociology, Northwestern University	$1,000
2020	Second-year Paper Alumni Fund Grant Department of Sociology, Northwestern University	$400
2019	Mellon Cluster Fellowship in Science Studies Science in Human Culture Program, Northwestern University	$2,500
2017	Emily Murray Student Fellowship Award The Hastings Center	$375

Awards

2025	Outstanding Graduate Student Teacher Award Weinberg College of Arts and Sciences, Northwestern University
2024	Hacker-Mullins Graduate Student Paper Award Section on Knowledge and Technology, American Sociological Association
2024	Robert F. Winch Award for Outstanding Graduate Student Instructor Department of Sociology, Northwestern University
2024	Robert F. Winch Award for Outstanding Graduate Student Published Paper Department of Sociology, Northwestern University
2023	Robert F. Winch Award for Outstanding Teaching Assistant Department of Sociology, Northwestern University

Teaching Experience

W '23, S '25	Science in Crisis? Instructor of record	5.93/6 (n=17)	† Northwestern University
F '21, W '22, F '22, W '25	Sociological Theory Co-instructor with Wendy Espeland	5.72/6 (n=58)	Northwestern University
F '24	Health, Biomedicine, Culture & Society Teaching assistant for Santiago Molina	5.60/6 (n=26)	Northwestern University
S '21	Medical Sociology Teaching assistant for Carol Heimer	5.79/6 (n=13)	Northwestern University
W '21	Sexuality, Technoscience, and the Law Teaching assistant for Renee Shelby		Northwestern University
F '20	Numbers, Identity, and Modernity Co-instructor with Wendy Espeland	5.62/6 (n=28)	Northwestern University

Professional Service

—	Peer reviewer for Social Studies of Science and American Sociological Review
2023–present	Chronic Illness Alliance (Northwestern University Undergraduate Student Organization) Advisor
2020–2021	Doctoral Colloquium, Science in Human Culture Program Coordinator
2020–2021	Graduates Mentoring Undergraduates Graduate Mentor
2020–2021	Graduate Student Association Fellowships and Grants Volunteer

References

Steven Epstein Professor of Sociology and John C. Shaffer Professor in the Humanities, Northwestern University	s-epstein@northwestern.edu
Wendy Espeland Professor of Sociology, Northwestern University	wne741@northwestern.edu
Carol Heimer Professor of Sociology Emerita, Northwestern University	c-heimer@northwestern.edu
Christine Percheski Associate Professor of Sociology, Northwestern University	c-percheski@northwestern.edu
Ken Alder Milton H. Wilson Professor in the Humanities, Northwestern University	k-alder@northwestern.edu

† Each depicted score represents an aggregate of responses across evaluation questions and terms. A comprehensive record of my teaching evaluations, including qualitative feedback, is available on my website.

Michael Lynch
Professor of Science & Technology Studies Emeritus, Cornell University

mel27@cornell.edu